Church of Beloved Ecumenical Catholic Community

34rd week in Ordinary Time
Christ Jesus, King of the Universe

At the foot of the cross, we see the kind of King we have — a King who does not destroy his enemies but forgives them, who does not reign with armies but with open arms. His throne is not built on gold or glory, but on love that endures even through death.

...to celebrate Christ the King is to ask ourselves: which kingdom do we belong to? The kingdom of power, pride, and fear — or the kingdom of compassion, truth, and mercy?

Christ reigns wherever love triumphs over hatred, wherever forgiveness is stronger than revenge, wherever the poor are lifted up and the broken are healed. This is the reign of God that begins here and now — in every act of love, every gesture of peace, every moment of mercy. Listening Team

On rare occasions, when a conflict arises of a sensitive and/or ethical nature and the issue cannot be resolved by normal means, the Parish Council may engage our 3-person Listening Team, an unbiased, confidential, investigative team. At the Church of the Beloved, we want you to know your voice will be heard.

At Eucharist on Saturdays throughout November...

This month began with our celebration of the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls Days. We will continue to have our Remembrance Book out in which you may write the names of loved ones who have died. You may also light a candle before Mass at the front of the church for those saints living and dead and take notice of our altar cloth on which members of our community wrote names of those who have died. The Communion of Saints is all around us, gathered with us especially at Eucharist.

Dear Lord - I try to have the courage of my convictions but often when I have to defend those, convictions, I back down. Help me develop a stronger backbone especially when I witness for You. Amen

God didn't put us on this earth to set a bad example.
