We live every moment of our lives, from beginning to end, in the embrace of God. God is within us. God is among us – there is no “separate self.” And God is beyond us, more than we can possibly imagine. The Social Justice team has decided on 2 options for Advent Outreach for 2024. Giving Tree tags will be distributed this Saturday. You may choose to participate in either or both outreach efforts. When you have delivered the items on your gift tag, please place the tag on our tree. It will be fun to watch the tree come to life with generosity and compassion.

1. We have joined with NUCC to provide food items for students during the Christmas break at Stukey Elementary School, on Grant Drive. This population has many needs and receives breakfast and lunch at school. During the break, many will be food insecure. They have requested nutritious shelf stable products such as soup, peanut butter, mac and cheese, tuna, refried beans, etc. Please bring it to the church between Nov. 30-Dec. 14th. What is received will be delivered Dec. 19.
2. We have partnered with Casa de Paz Colorado, a support group that assists ICE detainees with money orders that can be purchased to buy items at the canteen. This is the only way they can purchase items. Casa de Paz also helps migrants when they are released to access housing and food and support.

The Social Justice team asks for your support during this holy season and thanks you for your participation as you are called and able.
