Holy One, in this season of deepening night, we turn to you, the Light no darkness can overcome.

As we light the rose candle, the candle of joy, we ask you to awaken in us a joy not born of ease or certainty, but—a joy that blooms even in the desert, that strengthens weak hands and steadies trembling hearts. Teach us to find joy in the hidden places of our lives—where prayers take root more than seen. May the glow of this candle of joy guide our hearts toward hope, peace, and your ever-present love. Amen
