Easter

We journey together to the joy of Easter.

18th Good Friday at 7 p.m. The Passion of John, Veneration of the Cross, Eucharist and adoration and prayer following the service

19th Liturgical Environment 11:00 a.m.

19th Easter Vigil at 8 p.m. Lighting of The New Paschal Fire, Salvation History, Renewing our baptismal promises, Rejoicing

20th Easter morning Mass at 8:30 a.m.

Please note: we will use a bit of incense on Good Friday, Easter Vigil and Easter. We use just a pinch and it is a blend to reduce sensitivity. Sitting in the back of the church may reduce the scent.

Colorful flowers needed for our Easter Celebration: Please bring potted plants in a variety of colors so that we are ready to enjoy Easter joy. Just place them, well-watered, in the fellowship hall. Thank you in advance.

Thank you for all those who have and will lend a hand, a voice, a service, a ministry, a kind word, a listening ear, a prayer-soaked heart as we journey through the Mystery of this Holy Week leading to Easter.

6th Annual Jim Burnik Memorial Tax Refund Campaign - Since 2019, every year at tax time, the Church of the Beloved has held an appeal in memory of Jim Burnik. For those new to our community, Jim was Spirit-filled and a very active, beloved member of our community. He was a light to all of us and an example of how to unconditionally love one and all. Sadly, Jim was taken much too early. In his memory, we created the Jim Burnik Memorial Tax Refund Campaign. We humbly ask each parishioner to pray and consider donating a portion of your tax refund to Church of the Beloved in Jim's name (as an extra donation). If the Holy Spirit does so move you to donate, we ask that you mark the donation in such a way that we know it is for the campaign. Thank you and as Jim would always during the Sign of Peace: "God's Peace to you!"

During April we have been engaged in a special Lenten Activity in support of Project Angel Heart. Please bring your change or contributions this weekend along with any bags you decorated.

If you would like to contribute to the outreach by check, write the check to Church of the Beloved and add PAH to the note. In that manner, we'll be able to track our total Lenten gift to the agency. Thank you, Social Justice Team

Pat Tinucci made 100 of these beautifully crocheted Angel Hearts for our Lenten Project. Project Angel Heart will be handing these out to staff and volunteers to show their appreciation. Thank you Pat Tinucci for your amazing work! Sincerely, The Social Justice Committee
