VERY FEW WORDS FROM DEACON BUDDY

Between May and October, the children several times repeated with consistency the facts of their visions. Over the course of those months, a time that included individual interrogations by parents, strangers, clergy, and anticlerics alike, and though being detained and threatened with a torturous death if they did not recant their stories, the children's account never changed. Nor did they ever betray the Lady's command to keep secret several revelations made known during the apparitions. Three young, innocent peasant children preferred death to deceit, and many times thought they would be shown that preference. The following is an account of the October miracle by William Thomas Walsh from his book "Our Lady of Fatima." "On the very day, and at nearly the exact hour they had foretold, some 70,000 persons that assembled at the cove testified to the unique experience of seeing the sun dance in the sky, spin around, and then fall toward the earth. Witnesses as far as 25 miles away reported seeing the same events. Such widespread testimony serves to confirm that the children actually had seen the Mother of Jesus, and that He (Jesus) had given the simple souls of the Cova da Iria the sign in the sky for which the Pharisees had begged Him in mock reverence, and which He had refused to grant their unbelieving and adulterous hearts.
