Job 38:1, 8-11; Ps 107; 2 Corinthians 5:14-17; Mark 4:35-41

Storms. Either we have been in one, we're currently going through one, or we're going to be in one soon. Joy, grief, victory, and defeat can coexist in the same storm at the same exact moment. Our hearts can be full of grief and still have an unexplainable joy. Our relationships and health can hit the rocks yet we can stay steady in our faith journey. Jesus promised that in this world we would have trials, but he also said, "Be of good cheer, for I have overcome the world." Though it may seem that Jesus is absent in the midst of our trial, or asleep on the job, yet we know he is with us, even when we feel overwhelmed. May our faith in Emmanuel (God with us.) be increased and made a sure foundation for us!

Members of the social justice team are supporting a family from

- Venezuela seeking asylum. They are legally in the process and are sponsored by CHAN (Colorado Hosting Asylum Network) and are our neighbors in Thornton. The family of four needs some medical and dental work. The next three Saturdays, we will have a basket for cash donations which will be distributed directly to the health providers. More details to come in a Bulletin Board email.
- Our food bank of the month is Good Shepherd Presbyterian. We encourage you to bring non-perishable food each week as an offering. When you do your shopping for your family, include a few items for those who are experiencing hunger and food insecurity. We got "out of the habit" of bringing food during the pandemic and hope to get back in our mindset/heart of remembering the least among us

Zoom-ers: There is a worship aid attached so that you may participate fully. If you are unable to join us in person, as you prepare your sacred space at home, you may want to “set your table” with a beautiful GREEN cloth, bring a cross, a candle, bread and wine/juice.

For those who are so moved, we invite you to pray the prayer of Spiritual Communion:

Oh my Jesus, I turn toward the holy tabernacle in my heart where You live and love me. I love you. Come and visit me with Your grace. Spiritually come more fully into my heart. Purify me. Sanctify me. Make me more like You. May I receive You in your fullness and reflect You in the world. Amen

You are welcome to email the link below to friends and family, and please refrain from posting it on social media for security. It remains the same for every liturgy.
