Tenth Week of Ordinary Time

Readings: Genesis 3.9-15; 2 Corinthians 4.13-5.1; Mark 3.20-35

Picture from Young Catholics.Org

In this week's gospel Jesus teaches that his true family includes those who do God's will. Jesus emphasizes unity and the power of faith over division.

This week we pray:

Unifying One, The arc to redemption and liberation is not without conflict, suffering, division or challenge. The life of your Son Jesus shows us that Mercy can overcome what is incomplete or fractured. When we encounter darkness or failure, we know this is not the last word. By the strength of your Holy Spirit, keep us going forward with courage to spread the Good News of your unending love to all. We ask this through Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

PREPARATION FOR LITURGY.

Zoom-ers: There is a worship aid attached so that you may participate fully. If you are unable to join us in person, as you prepare your sacred space at home, you may want to “set your table” with a beautiful GREEN cloth, bring a cross, a candle, bread and wine/juice.

For those who are so moved, we invite you to pray the prayer of Spiritual Communion:

Oh my Jesus, I turn toward the holy tabernacle in my heart where You live and love me. I love you. Come and visit me with Your grace. Spiritually come more fully into my heart. Purify me. Sanctify me. Make me more like You. May I receive You in your fullness and reflect You in the world. Amen

You are welcome to email the link below to friends and family, and please refrain from posting it on social media for security. It remains the same for every liturgy.
