Pastoral Care Training

Expanding pastoral care within our communities could be a great asset. Recognizing the desire of ECC Pastors to expand pastoral care within their church communities, this interactive training provides insights and practices designed to help lay people make visits to other community members, offering them additional caring contact beyond that which the priest gives. It also considers ways to support the pastor and other clergy in the community. Content: The 4- hour session is made up of modules which are entitled as follows...

- a. Why Provide pastoral care?
- b. Assuring confidentiality
- c. Sharing prayer and Eucharist
- d. Providing a listening ear (both active and reflective)
- e. Maintaining healthy boundaries
- f. Vetting volunteers for lay pastoral care ministry
- g. Clergy support.

The training will be held on Saturday August 23rd, from 10am to 2pm at Church of the Beloved, 10500 Grant Drive, Northglenn, CO. The training will be open to everyone in the Rocky Mountain Region who is interested. Chuck Cooper and Mary Franch, from Light of Christ ECC, are happy to bring this training session to the Rocky Mountain Region of the ECC. Both are experienced and trained Stephen Ministers and Stephen Ministry leaders. Mary also served as Lay Pastoral Associate at Light of Christ for many years and Chuck has been the Parish Council Staff Liaison in support of LOC's pastor. Non-critical pastoral care offers extra support for folks that just need a listening ear. It also makes a huge difference in support of the pastor. No Zoom available. In person at COB. RSVP to Mother Alice.

Listening Team

On rare occasions, when a conflict arises of a sensitive and/or ethical nature and the issue cannot be resolved by normal means, the Parish Council may engage our 3-person Listening Team, an unbiased, confidential, investigative team. At the Church of the Beloved, we want you to know your voice will be heard.

We need your help getting ready for our 2nd Regional Synod of the Rocky Mountain Region of the ECC on October 11, 2025 at Light of Christ (1000 W 15th Ave, Longmont)

“Where is the Spirit Taking Us?”

This event will be a prayerful time of gathering of the 5 communities of the ECC in Colorado to get to know one another, be inspired by our keynote speaker Fr. Scott Jenkins, and discern together where the Spirit is leading us. There is a planning team representing each community hard at work planning this event for us all. Now we are looking for folks to help with the work teams that will be needed for that day. These teams include:

Hospitality –orient people throughout the day, put out snacks and drinks, create name tags, etc

Registration – help register people before the event, and check them in the day of the event

Lunch – plan, setup, serve and cleanup for lunch

Liturgy – plan the closing Liturgy with presider Bishop Kae, including blessing of Chrism oils.

Music – musicians and vocalists needed for Mass. We anticipate a rehearsal sometime during the week prior to Synod

To volunteer for any of these work teams, please contact Fr. Teri Harroun (Pastor at Light of Christ) by the end of July.

If you have an account (we all do, as that is how you get the member price), simply log into your account at King Soopers.com. Your name will come up in the top right corner "my account". scroll to Community Rewards and sign up for AY563. A small percentage of all your purchases will go to the church.
