18th Week of Ordinary Time

Readings: Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23 Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11 Luke 12:13-21

In this week's gospel Jesus urges us to become "rich in what matters to God." What matters to God? Compassion, justice, mercy, generosity, and faithfulness. These are the treasures that last—eternal inheritances we can share without fear of losing anything. They multiply, not diminish, when given away. (LiturgyAlive)

Here it is August already, With the Kids starting back to school their need for food is great. The items most needed are: Cereal, Chunky type Soup, Dry Pasta, Crackers. And because the local school systems do not furnish snacks but schedule daily “snacktime” they have a great need for individual cups of fruit, pudding and individually wrapped snacks and chips.
And we are also doing a school supply drive. All donations will be divided among Cabrini's school, Gary Reese's school, and Broomfield FISH. Please give as you are able and to any or all of these worthy places. Thank you and God Bless

We need your help getting ready for our 2nd Regional Synod of the Rocky Mountain Region of the ECC on October 11, 2025 at Light of Christ (1000 W 15th Ave, Longmont)

“Where is the Spirit Taking Us?”

This event will be a prayerful time of gathering of the 5 communities of the ECC in Colorado to get to know one another, be inspired by our keynote speaker Fr. Scott Jenkins, and discern together where the Spirit is leading us. There is a planning team representing each community hard at work planning this event for us all. Now we are looking for folks to help with the work teams that will be needed for that day. These teams include:

Hospitality –orient people throughout the day, put out snacks and drinks, create name tags, etc

Registration – help register people before the event, and check them in the day of the event

Lunch – plan, setup, serve and cleanup for lunch

Liturgy – plan the closing Liturgy with presider Bishop Kae, including blessing of Chrism oils.

Music – musicians and vocalists needed for Mass. We anticipate a rehearsal sometime during the week prior to Synod

To volunteer for any of these work teams, please contact Fr. Teri Harroun (Pastor at Light of Christ) at pastor@lightofchristecc.org by the end of July.
