Feast of the Baptism of the Lord (Cycle A),

Readings: Isaiah 42:1–4, 6–7; Psalm 29; Acts 10:34–38; Matthew 3:13–17

At the Jordan River, Jesus is named beloved before he does anything at all. In baptism, that same truth is spoken over us: we belong to God, not because of what we achieve, but because of who we are. From that place of love, we are sent into the world—to live with courage, to seek justice, and to care for one another. Baptism is not only a sacramental event that happened to us in the past; it is a calling we live every day!
