All Saints

Revelation 7:2-4; Ps 24; 1John 3: 1-3; Matthew 5:1-12a

Remembering Who and Whose we are! Everyone ONE for Eternity!

All Saints and All Souls: Saturday, Oct 31st, we will celebrate All Saints and the path of being more like Christ. Before and after Mass, we will provide smooth stones in the fellowship hall for you to write the names of the faithful departed that you wish to remember. (Note: don't forget to set your clock back)

On Sunday morning, during the 7 a.m. labyrinth walk and centering prayer, we will prayerfully place the stones around the perimeter and center of the labyrinth as a symbol of all being in God's time and eternity.

If you want to place your own stones, we will walk the labyrinth along with a brief prayer service on Monday November 2nd at 12 noon for All Souls commemoration. (We will provide more stones for names on Monday.) Re-mem-bering is good for all souls.

Lord - I need to remember that Your blessings are not mine to keep just for myself. They are to be shared with those who struggle with less. Amen
