November is a month of Remembrance as we began with All Saints and All Souls. If you have a chance to walk the labyrinth, you will notice the names of many loved ones written on stones around the perimeter. We are holding them as they are holding us all in Christ. We are placing the Book of Remembrance at the entrance to the sanctuary for you to write the names of your loved ones. The book holds many years of our communal memories. If we remember :), the book will be brought to the altar during the presentation of gifts.
Thank-giving: We will gather for Eucharist on Thanksgiving at 8 a.m. 'Tis early and many folks need to get busy. You are welcome to bring the bread for your tables to be blessed (on zoom or in person).

ON CALL* FOR PASTORAL EMERGENCIES SCHEDULE
Bishop Kae is on call Tues., Nov 10 – Nov 25th 720-232-1562
Please call if during the night, as I may not hear a text notification.

Pastoral Care: Our pastoral care team has developed a "menu" of ways that we could support you, engaging the community-at-large, too. The list of offerings will be handed out to each household as you come to liturgy on Saturday. There is a "CARE Mail" box that Lonnie made for us on our back table. If/as you have a request, either hand it to a member of the team (Christy, Greg M., Margaret, Maureen, Kae, Cabrini, Aleta) or place it in the box. We will check the box weekly. Love in action.

God - when things go wrong, I often accuse You of being a punishing, unfair parent. Help me to accept the blame for making wrong choices (and that "stuff happens") and I ask that You see me through the dark times. Amen
